

2025 EXHIBITION

Kamal Khan (from Spring View Care Nursing Homes) again sponsored a competition with the artists being challenged to produce pictures based on the theme of “Summer Holidays”.

The entries are shown in more detail on this and the next few pages.

Competition Winner:
"The joy of the beach"
painted by Lesley Travis

Runner Up: “Mindfulness Moment” painted by Ali Collis

3rd: “Summer fun
at the seaside”
painted by Maggie Rumney

4th: “Oi! Leave those chips alone”
painted by Alison Hendrix

More competition
entries

...and even more competition entries!

name: Sarah, Michael
 on: 10/10/10 at 10:00
 name: Michael
 age: 10

name: Michael, Michael
 on: 10/10/10 at 10:00
 name: Michael
 age: 10

name: Michael, Michael
 on: 10/10/10 at 10:00
 name: Michael
 age: 10

name: Sarah, Michael
 on: 10/10/10 at 10:00
 name: Michael
 age: 10

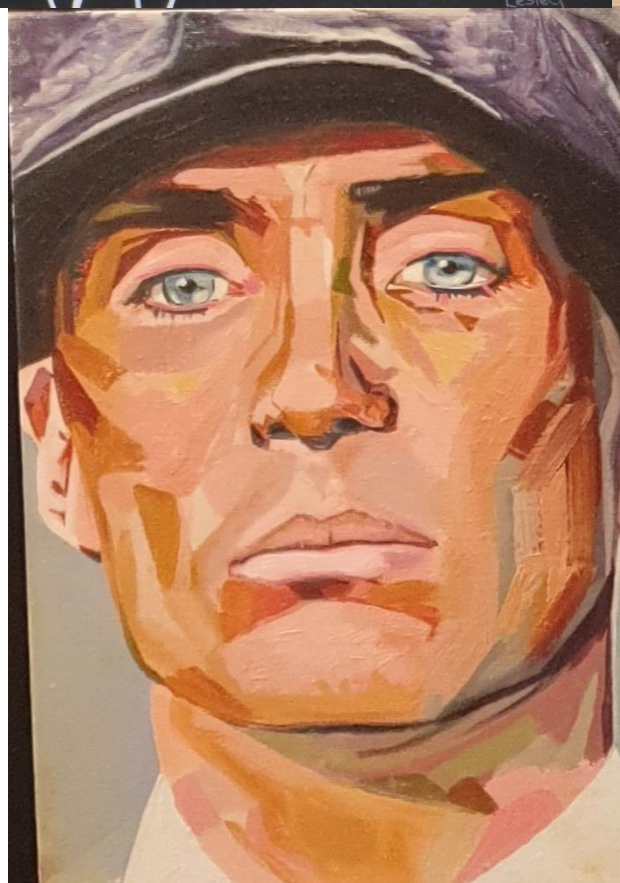

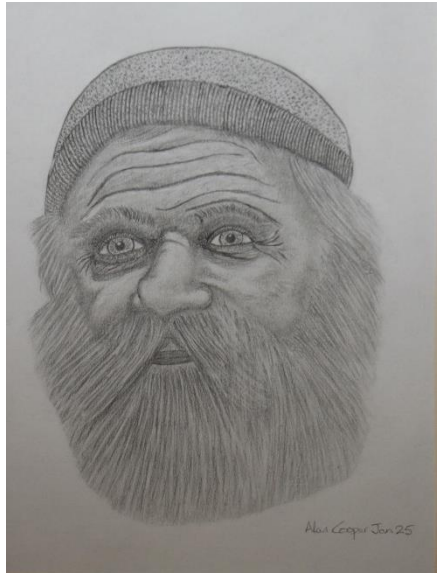

name: Sarah, Michael
 on: 10/10/10 at 10:00
 name: Michael
 age: 10

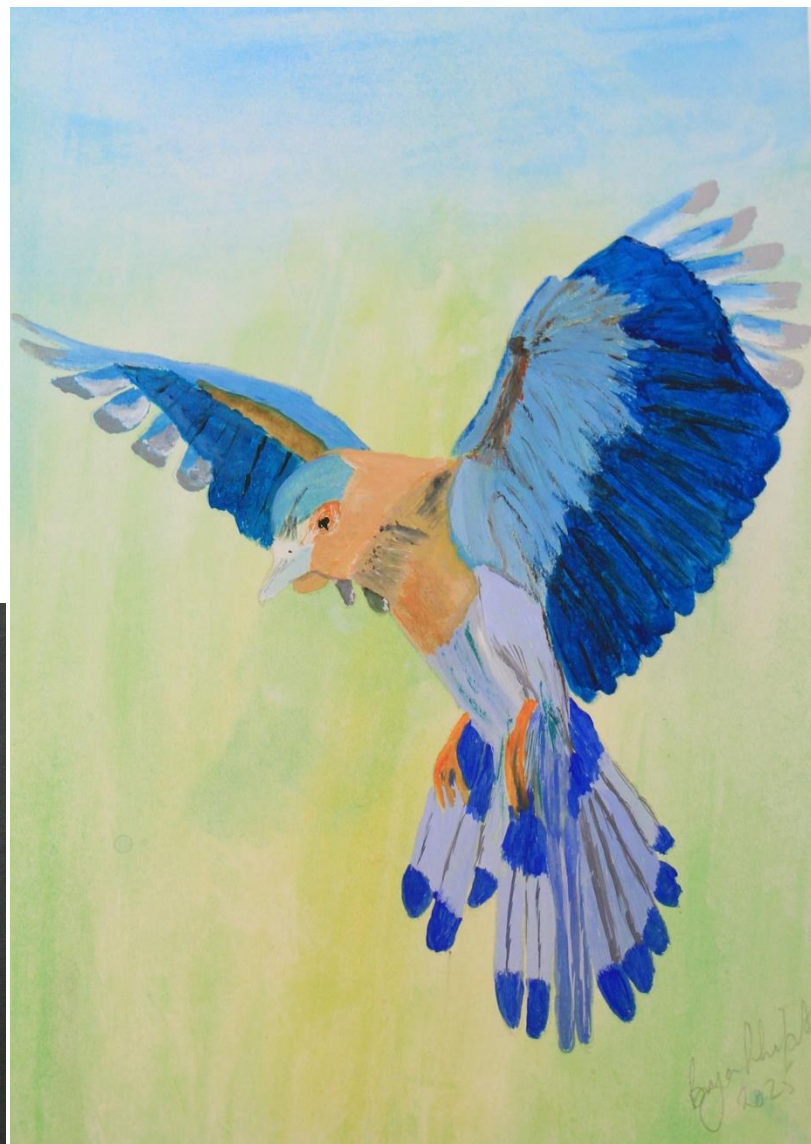

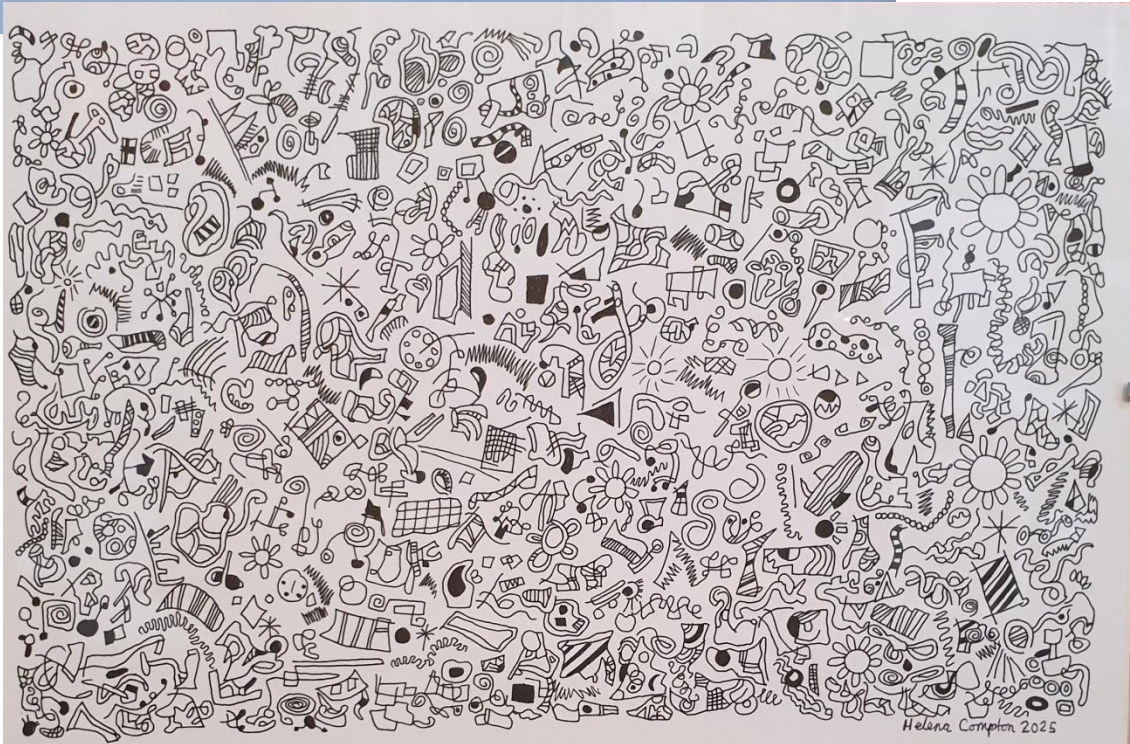

name: Sarah, Michael
 on: 10/10/10 at 10:00
 name: Michael
 age: 10

A few more Abstract style pictures...

AUTUMN.

Now the leaves are mowed and dyed,
From the trees they drop and fall;
Telling me and tale to all,
Omen their hands in glory lifted,
Praising God who gave them birth;
Now from life by death they're rited,
Fallen, broken into earth.

Some had fallen in the spring-time,
For they first had seen the light;
Others lived until the autumn,
Still they're falling one by one.

Hear the winds they speak so soft,
We like them once light and free,
Soon rust down and fall, and part,
For ring death's dark valley here.

There to sleep till home's bright spring-time,
Hear the birds and blossoms fair;
Waiting for the "new" year,
Flowers in endless bloom are there.

